Benefits of AFC membership affect each individual member, every institution and the Florida College System. The following are AFC benefits for individual members:

Professional development: Develop skills in leadership, public speaking, advocacy, team work and interpersonal relationships

Access to information on issues and programs that affect higher education, the state college system, and you

Opportunities to attend workshops and conferences learning new skills and knowledge

Opportunities to apply for AFC partnership scholarships and grants to continue your education

Connections with colleagues both at your college and colleges around the state

A voice in issues that affect your college and you as a college employee or retiree. Attend AFC meetings, ask questions and voice your opinion on issues that impact you, your institution, and your students.

Collaboration in advocacy efforts: You directly benefit from the advocacy strengths of the Association

Lifelong friendships with others having the same interests

Opportunities to help others through local and statewide service projects
